

REPORTING OF IRAS, 401(K)S AND OTHER DEFINED CONTRIBUTION PLANS ON THE ANNUAL OGE FORM 278e

What is Reportable?

- IRA, Roth IRA, SEP IRA, or other tax-deferred retirement accounts.
- 401(k), 401a, 403b, 457, or other non-federal defined contribution plans.
- Not Reportable: Any federal retirement plan, including the TSP.

Information Needed

For each retirement plan, you will need the year-end statement or online access to the year-end information for all of the underlying assets and transaction information for the full calendar year.

Part 2: Report YOUR retirement plan/account, underlying assets, and distributions

Plan or Account

- Report the plan/account type (and the name of the employer/sponsor if there is one) in the description field. The EIF field should be marked “No.”
- Enter the exact amount of any cash distribution received on the same entry as the plan/account description. If no distribution was received, leave the income type and amount blank.

Underlying assets

- Enter each asset held in the plan/account with a value more than $1,000 at year-end.
- Please consult the Public Financial Disclosure Guide <https://www.oge.gov/Web/278eGuide.nsf> for questions about how to report a particular kind of underlying asset. See examples for a mutual fund and a stock below.
- If you are using Integrity.gov, reference the plan/account entry in the “Parent Asset” field.
- For each underlying asset report the income amount as “None (or less than $201).”

Part 3: Report YOUR retirement plan/account if it is sponsored by a former employer

- Report the name and location of your former employer.
- The language in the example below reflects the typical arrangement for a defined contribution plan. If your arrangement is different, please contact your agency ethics office.
- Enter the date that you began participating in the plan.
- IRAs do not need to be reported in Part 3.

Employer or Party	City/State	Status and Terms	Date
Widget Co.	Charlotte, NC	I will continue to participate in this defined contribution plan. The plan sponsor will not make further contributions after my separation.	5/1998

Part 5: Report YOUR SPOUSE’s retirement plan/account, underlying assets, and distributions

Plan or Account

- Report the plan/account type (and the name of the employer/sponsor if there is one) in the description field. The EIF field should be marked “No.”
- Enter the exact amount of any cash distribution received on the same entry as the plan/account description. If no distribution was received, leave the income type and amount blank.

Underlying assets

- Enter each asset held in the plan/account with a value more than $1,000 at year-end.
- Please consult the Public Financial Disclosure Guide <https://www.oge.gov/Web/278eGuide.nsf> for questions about how to report a particular kind of underlying asset. See examples for a mutual fund and a stock below.
- If you are using Integrity.gov, reference the plan/account entry in the “Parent Asset” field.
- For each underlying asset report the income amount as “None (or less than $201).”
